

Barnwood Poker Table

$1,700

This rustic barnwood poker table will be a wonderful addition to your game room. This barn wood poker table is built as a multi-purpose table with one side being the card table and one side being the dining table. Each rustic poker table top has eight cup holders, with cork inserts, and chip trays routed out. The table top is two-inch thick and is built out of Ponderosa pine but stained to match the barnwood furniture. The poker table top is stocked with charcoal felt to match the one-inch clevis nails, but you can select your choice of felt to match any other game table or decor in your home as well. When you are not playing cards, just flip this table top over and you will have a smooth dining table.
